Flattering:
 Anything! Lucky you!	 A hairstyle that adds more length to the face and is face framing. Bangs and layers will slim the face. Make sure the it is longer than chin length. Wispy edges or tapered ends, but avoid feathering around cheek level. Hairstyles that add height to the crown area.	 Long hairstyles that soften and frame the edges of the face. Blunt cuts that are just below shoulder length. Feathery bangs or a side parting. You can also look for a hairstyle that adds height to the crown. Soften your jawline with long bangs or layers that start at the jawline.	 A heart-shaped face looks good with a soft, curly or wavy style that frames the face. Also pixie cuts and shoulder length hair with layers. Choppy layers to add more dimension to the hairstyle. Long bangs will also look great.	 Many different styles look good on a diamond. A blunt, shoulder length cut or wispy bangs for long hair. Wavy medium to chin length hair. With shoulder length hair you can try subtle face framing layers. Also, bangs are great to soften the diamond.
Avoid:
Nothing!	 Short bobs, blunt cuts and a straight fringe. Avoid a tight ponytail with your hair slicked back.	 Avoid short haircuts - it makes the face look squarer in shape.	 Long styles that do not frame the face and styles that widen the top of the head and accentuate the thinner chin too much.	 Avoid excessive layers and too much volume. Short cuts generally do not suit diamond-shaped faces, as it adds to the fullness of the upper part of the face.

FACE TYPES AND BECOMING NECKLINES WOMEN'S AND MISSES' TEEN AGE

OVAL FACE

Most necklines, except very round ones, are becoming to this contour. If neck is thin conceal it with curved mounting necklines.

Hair parted in the center and worn in a long soft bob is very flattering.

HEART SHAPED FACE

This triangular shaped face requires width at the neckline such as found in square, "U" shaped or sweetheart necklines.

Widen your pointed chin with the hair arranged in a soft full bob almost touching the shoulders.

ROUND FACE

This contour needs length. The deep "V" and other low necklines are good. Also try adding width at base of neckline.

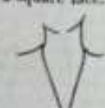

Youthful braids tied with ribbons add width at the shoulders making the face seem less round.

SQUARE FACE

To soften the square jaw common to this face type, wear deep "V" or sweetheart necklines.

Wear the hair in a soft, feminine manner, but never too short, such as a severe boyish hair cut. If the hair is rolled high on the sides of the head it softens a square face.

LONG FACE

This type of face needs to be figuratively shortened with a line of interest. Wear small close fitting collars or high haton necklines.

Shorten a long face by wearing soft bangs and brush the hair up from the temples to form soft rolls which add needed width.
